

CONTENTS

THE LESSER FIELDS

Economy of Winter / 3

Ontogeny / 4

With Shut Eyes What My Mind Sees Does Not Belong to Me / 5

Icicles Tine Barnward from the Barn's Shallow Eave / 7

I Pack Her Suitcase with Sticks, Light the Tinder, and Shut the Lid / 9

Illuminated Face / 10

Near the Creek Emptied of Water / 11

Dusk by Flame / 12

Allies / 13

Lovemaking in America / 14

Secrets Objects Share / 15

Economy of Winter 2 / 16

People Live Here / 17

The Lesser Fields / 19

NOVEMBER DEATHS

The Snow Uncut Is a Field of Orphans / 23

She Drops Each Suture from Her Stomach into the Vase on Her Bedside Table / 24

A Boy Is Kicking the Stomach of a Dog / 25

From a Sheet of Yellow Paper I Cut Bolts of Lightning / 26

If Not a Passage Already Dangerous Then None This Hour Feral with Salt and Rockfish Swiveling Wakes at the Water's Surface
as the Strait Swells in the Storm / 27

The Lark's Call Is Smaller than the Field / 28

LIVES

Lives of Daughter / 31

Lives of Greta / 32

Lives of Tree / 34

Lives of Name / 35

Lives of Furrow / 36

Lives of Son / 37

Lives of Empire / 38

Lives of West / 39

Lives of Odin / 40

Lives of Lake / 41

Lives of Horse / 42

Lives of Animal / 43

Lives of Method / 44

Lives of Morandi / 45

Lives of Rot / 46

Lives of Modrow / 47

Lives of Nathan / 48

Lives of Cloth / 49

Lives of Forest / 50

Lives of Raft / 51

Lives of Estuary / 52

*

Notes / 53

Acknowledgements / 54

Economy of Winter

Sun peels paint from one side of the vacant house and the fields turn fallow in the absence of tractors.

A sudden wind disquiets the chimes and the half-dead cottonwood pays dearly

from its empty pockets; its heavy branches nod bluntly, threatening nothing but the public road.